By Order of July 13, 2015, the Court directed the named plaintiffs to show cause within 14 days why their respective complaints should not be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff Steve Surbaugh has made no timely response to the Order, and the Court therefore finds that his Class Action Complaint should be dismissed. Plaintiff Steve Dakil has filed a response but states that he does intend to pursue his Class Action Complaint and it should be dismissed. Because no defendant has answered or moved for summary judgment, Plaintiff Dakil's unequivocal statement that he wants his action dismissed operates as a notice of voluntary dismissal pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i). See Janssen v. Harris, 321 F.3d 998, 1000 (10th Cir. 2003); see also Netwig v. Georgia-Pac. Corp., 375 F.3d 1009, 1010 (10th Cir. 2004).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this consolidated action is DISMISSED without prejudice to refiling. This Order of Dismissal shall be filed in each of the subject cases.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 29th day of July, 2015.
